Timeless Wisdom in the Treasury of Songs of the Turkish Sufi traditions
With Sheikha Fariha Fatima al-Jerrahi

Illahis are beautiful songs of Divine Remembrance, composed over the centuries in all maqams, keys, for the various moods and disposition of those performing or listening. They are instruments of healing on all levels, and of deeper and deeper experiencing the Divine.

The Turkish Sufi traditions dispose of a huge repertoire of Illahis, many of the songs are common to the different Sufi lineages, with only slight variations.

In the silence and seclusion of the wonderful retreat and seminar house Domicilium in Weyarn close to Munich, we will share in delving into and in exploring the timeless wisdom sounding in these songs. Together we will sing and make music, and celebrate Zikr and Sema, magnificent ceremonies of Divine Remembrance in Sufism.

Sheikha Fariha al Jerrahi (New York City) is head of the worldwide Sufi order of the Nur-Ashki-Jerrahis. There are more than 100 Illahis in the Nur-Ashki-Jerrahiya, which its luminous beloved founder Sheikh Muzaffer Ozak has brought as one of the countless gifts. Sheikh Nur al Jerrahi has been rendering them in his unique way, and so gave birth to priceless pearls of Illumination, radiant gems of Wisdom and Love.
